

2009 Memorial Day Weekend Wye Island Event

COME BY LAND OR SEA

WHERE: Wye Island DNR Lodge Facility on Granary Creek
Coordinates are: N 38° 53.10' and W 76° 08.55'.
Sorry, no dogs allowed ashore, except end of Granary Creek

Saturday May 23th :

Free Games Saturday and Sunday:Come Ashore & Play Anytime
Charcoal Grills and Picnic Tables Available for your own cookouts

Sunday May 24th

- Compete for the Most Unusually-Equipped Boat Award (new event)
- The Wet and Wacky GREEN Dinghy Races (paddle or oars required)
- The Cut-Throat, Competitive O-Limp-Ic Games (some favorites, some new!)
- Shoreside BYO Happy Hour and Barbecue Chicken, Beans & Pot Luck Dinner
Bring your choice of your best hors d'oeuvres, veggies, side dishes, salads or desserts to share. Water and ice provided ($20 Plate charge covers the entire weekend). EYC Rum punch will also be available.
- Awards Presentation and Entertainment

Directions by Land to the DNR Lodge at Wye Island

1. Take Rt. 50 East, approximately 13 mi. from the east end of the Bay Bridge
2. Turn right on Carmichael Rd (at sign for the NWRA and Aspen Institute)
3. Stay on the "main road", which becomes Wye Island Rd along the way
4. About 4 mi. after leaving Rt 50, you cross a small bridge onto Wye Island
5. Continue on the "main road" past a sign saying "Wye Island NRMA Conference Lodge, Trails", etc
(Do not turn off main road here onto Wye Hall Drive)
6. About 1.5 mi. from the bridge, turn left at sign on your left for "D.N.R. Conference Lodge"
7. Turn left and follow the road to the end

(Brought to you by the EYC Cruisers, the Magothy River Sailing Association and the Chesapeake Bristol Club)