

MILES RIVER CRUISE June 6, 7

by Gabriella Belli and Bob Krapfel

Five boats made the trip to Long Haul Creek in the Miles River on what turned out to be two nice days following days of rain, rain, and more rain. Winds were light and variable, but it was a pleasant trip in both directions. Paradox was at the dock along with Flying Low with Al and Sue Kirkendall. Three boats were at anchor: Min Van IV with John and Debbie Lund, Frequent Flyer with Mike and Laura Bonham, who talked their friends Rod Swank and Dennise Fath to make the trip on their boat Euphoria. Jeff Fones joined us all on Paradox for a lazy afternoon of chatting and libations. Then on to a wonderful dinner al fresco at the Miles River Yacht Club, where the group was joined by Jeff and Kate Fones and Myron and Sigi Dorf. The Miles River Yacht Club folks were most welcoming, placing us on the patio with a great view of the boats and gifting us with two bottles of white wine. Think the Fones may have prompted that gift. A good time was had by all and this is definitely a venue we should go back to for another fine outing.
