

Ahoy Cruisers (and those racers who are closet cruisers)
Join the Fun at the February Cruise Planning Party/Pot Luck!!

So what things do sailors love, aside from their spouse and their boat (in that order I hope)? The answer of course is a party with fellow cruisers with lots of good food and libations, all at a really good deal. Well, all of these are to be had on Saturday, 11 February at the Belvedere Yacht Club at 6:00 p.m! The Cruising Planning Party/Pot Luck is on, with food, wine, beer and door prizes (Just in time for Valentines Day!)

During the party will be discussing the 2006 cruising schedule and looking for volunteers to fill the various cruise leader spots. To assist us, I would like all you cruisers to pick two of your favorite destinations and send me an email with them. This will help us develop our list of possible places to go, especially if more than one place is selected.

Those attending with last names beginning with A thru M, please bring an entrée, and those whose last names end with N thru Z, please bring a salad or side dish. Please bring the appropriate serving utensils as well; cutlery and plates/cups will be provided. Water, soda, coffee, dessert, beer and wine (most important!) will be provided by MRSA!

Directions to BYC: From Ritchie Highway (Rte 2) turn NE onto College Parkway at the light. Follow the Parkway through two lights and take next left onto Jones Station Road. Continue through the intersection with Mago Vista and then turn left onto Alameda Parkway. BYC is at the end of Alameda with the building on the right and parking on the left.

We really need you to RSVP by Wed 8 Feb to me (Burry Vanderveer) either by phone 410-647-5664, or email cruising@magothysailing.com. If I don't have accurate numbers we could run out of wine and beer, a crisis almost as severe as running aground! If you can assist with the setup, I would appreciate help starting at 5:00 p.m., so, let me know when you RSVP for the party. See you there!
